THE FALL POW-WOW

The fall pow-wow was a big success this year. A lot of thanks should go to Gene Eno and all of the others who made it tick.

At the Sunday meeting of the pow-wow Rod Harvey of Wanneta was elected as head chief and Art May of Lincoln was elected assistant head chief. It was also decided at this meeting that the organization would provide the sun to be sew on the breechclot and that these suns would have twelve points, symbolizing the Scout Law.

Advancements in rank, which were made during the preceding tribal council meeting, were announced. These advancements are as follows: Chief - Jim Estes and Niel Trabert; Senior Sacum - Harry Drieth; Senior Keeper of the Sacred Bundle - Art May, Assistant - Bob Eno; Senior Keeper of the Wampum - Chet Dill, Assistant - Lee Herman; Sacum - Dale Knoeck, Bob Prokop, David Larsen, Dick Farmon, Harvey Trout, Jerre Johnson, Bob Smith, George Hunker, Bucky Harano, Stan Fulcum, Alden Harper, Jarret Jones, Jim Shane, Don Johnson, Tom Morrissey, Pete Oranda, Charles Adams, and John Dawson. All other suns who were present except those newly initiated were raised to the rank of runner. Ponorary members who were initiated before the pow-wow this year were raised to the position of sacum in an advisory capacity.

An Apology

I am very sorry that I have been unable to complete certain duties since the fall pow-wow. Unfortunately my school work and many Golden Sun tasks have kept me too busy. The items that follow are listed with the time of expected completion.

Art May

1. Neckerchiefs - should be ready for Scout Week in February.
2. Suns for your breechclot - will be in the next sundial.
3. A price list and patterns for making all parts of the costume - out in February.
4. Your letters concerning the suns - will be answered by the middle of January.

WINTER POW-WOW

The annual winter pow-wow will be held on Monday, December 29 this year. This social event will be held at the Y.W.C.A. in Lincoln and will consist of a dinner at 6:30, followed by a dance. The meal will cost about $1.50 per person and dates will not be provided for those who do not bring them. Fill out the enclosed reservation card and mail it now. See you and your favorite girl the 29 of December, but come even without a girl.
