

THE CHIEF SPEAKS

An Editor: Yes, at last the Sundail has an editor. His name is Wade Dorland. He's from Humboldt and is an Engineering student at the U. of N. Congratulations on the fine job done on this Sundail and good luck for the future.

Those Chapters: When there organized, the three chapters in the lodge will take a lot of the burden off of the Lodge Officers; and will enable us to run the best program in the history of the Suns. Right now however, they are a source of a lot of work. The best thing you can do to help is to read the section on chapters in the dail and do your best to attend your area chapter meeting. With everyone trying we can make this Lodge and your chapter the best in the country.

POW WOW

The Fall Pow-wow was held on August 28-30 at Camp Minis Kuya with 70 new Suns being initiated. About 100 active members were present and all Suns who had not taken the change over ceremony received it. The new ritual for initiation (very little has been changed) was used for the first time and for the most part it was a very successful pow-wow.

New Officers: Art May, Lodge Chief; Bob Eno, Assistant Lodge Chief; Bob Prokop, Senior Keeper of the Sacred Bundle; and Chet Dill, Senior Keeper of the Wampum; are the officers elected at the Fall Pow-Wow. Gene Eno was nominated to candidacy for the Vigil Honor. Gene's name will be the first one ever submitted to the National OA office for this honor from this Lodge. Congratulations to Gene.

CHAPTER NEWS

In the new constitution adopted at the spring pow-wow, the lodge is broken into three chapters of about equal size geographically. The purpose of these chapters is to carry on all lodge activities except the fall pow-wow and initiation. Thus there will be three times as many official functions in the lodge with a proportionate increase in opportunities for your participation in them.

CAMP CEDARS AREA

The Camp Cedars Chapter had its organizational meeting on Nov. 20 at Camp Minis Kuya. Officers elected were Bob Smith, Lincoln, Chief; Barry Hammond, Lincoln, Secretary; and Tom Morrissey, Tecumseh, Treasurer. Committees were set up to work on Chapter By-Laws and to plan the winter social pow-wow. The date for the next chapter business was set as Saturday, Feb. 20. It will be at Minis Kuya.

The Winter Pow-Wow for the chapter this year will be held on Dec. 29 at YWCA in Lincoln. The cost will be $1.80 per person or $3.50 per couple for the banquet which will start at 6:15 P.M. Rather than the old unsuccessful dance which has been used in the past the committee has recommended that everybody attend a show afterward. The program will consist of the interesting parts of appetizer, main course, and dessert; and there will even be a speaker. Hope to see you there.

CAMP AUGUSTINE AREA

The Organizational meeting of the Camp Augustine Area chapter will be held on Sunday, Dec. 27 at 3:00 P.M. in the Grand Island City Hall Auditorium (3rd floor) located at 2nd and Pine St. (above Police station). If you are interested in this chapter please attend this meeting.
