

BREECHCLOT

The breechclot is made of two panels which may be connected by a third piece which goes between the legs on a dark colored swim suit may be worn. The following are the specifications for the breechclot:

- COLOR:--Black with yellow trim
- WIDTH:--10" to 12"
- LENGTH:--12" to 14" or 16"
- WIDTH OF TRIM:-- 1/2"
- SUN:--3" in diameter with 12 points.

The sun is located two inches from each edge in the lower right hand corner as you wear the breechclot. You may place your totem in the upper left hand corner.

THE NARROW BREECHCLOT CAN NOT BE USED.

Please send any questions concerning the breechclot to the Scout Office.

LANYARD

The lanyard consists of two eagle claws (the first claw is obtained when you are initiated and the second claw at the next pow wow attended), mounted in an attractive manner on a thong long enough to reach around the neck. The points of the claws are turned OUT for tribesmen and in for honoraries. Coups may be put on the lanyard for the following reasons: 1) One pair of round coups for each year of attendance to camp after initiation, 2) one pair of square coups for working on a camp staff (once only), 3) one pair of red, white, and blue coups for serving in the armed forces.
