

MEET THE CHIEF

To some, he's known as Tom Morgan. To others, he's known as Penelope, the farmer's daughter in a staff skit, last summer at Minis Kuya. But to all of the OA, he's Tom - Lodge-Chief, a true leader, and one who has tireless energy for the OA.

Tom is a junior in David City Aquinas High School, and his is known for one of the hottest trumpets around. When not busy with school or busy with Scouts, Tom is out on the David City Country Club golf course.

As one can easily see, Scouting has played a leading role in Tom's life. For the past four years, Tom has served in the pioneering area on campstaff. Last summer, Tom represented the Scouts of Nebraska at the Co-Op Convention in Lincoln. And in August, along with six others, Tom went to the National Order of the Arrow Convention in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois.

Recently, Tom was chosen to represent the Cornhusker Council in semi-finals to the report to the President.

Leading the OA activities at both camps, last year helped Tom to be the deserving Chief that he is.

As Lodge-Chief, Tom has drastically helped to re-activate the Lodge membership. And there will be a good deal more reforms that we can be expecting to see in our Lodge pretty soon. Thanks to Tom Morgan. Tom Morgan is truly a chief of Scouting, as well as of our Lodge.

THE SUNDIAL SALUTES TOM MORGAN, OUR LODGE-CHIEF!
