

CHEERFUL SERVICE

While other Districts held their circuses in November, North Star and Pioneer Districts combined Circus had a unique feature. An Order of the Arrow leazonne, composed mainly of members present at the Chapter camp-out and a few others, helped the Executive Club of Lincoln direct the floor movement of what has been classed as "mass pandemonium." Wearing bright red and white OA sashes, the leazonne stood out among the other Scouts. Giving signals, constructing physical fitness tracks, leading long lines of Cubs and, in some cases, acting as ushers were the jobs the group did. A real service project and good advertisement for a fine Order was accomplished along with a lot of fun for those participating. Has your Chapter had a real good service project? If not why not mastermind one and then see to it that it is carried out!

AN EVENT TO REMEMBER (cont. from page 1)
the food was superb. Mr. Herb Kimball directed the ordering and serving of the menu. And, to be able to please ninety different tastes in food was an undertaking! Kingscrest of Lincoln did the catering for the banquet. Served buffet style, eaters had a choice of ham or fried chicken along with potatoes, baked beans, fruit gelatin salad and ice cream for desert. In speaking of the meal (not the ice cream!) one Scout was heard to say.

"It's actually hot!"

After eating, Chief Morgan reviewed the past year's accomplishments and introduced Mr. Art Conti, who showed color slides of the events at the National OA Conference.

For further entertainment, the Clansmen, a three man, guitar strikin', banjo pluckin' folksinger group, entertained us for thirty minutes with folk ballads and closed with their own song, a beautiful ballad in honor of late President John F. Kennedy. With their last notes, the 1963 Winter Event Closed.

If you didn't make it this year, plan on coming next year. You WERE missed, and we can promise you a better time in the future than you will have ever had in the past. So see you there at the 1964 Winter Event.

QUESTION: What's purple and has bucket seats?

ANSWER:

WHAT IS THE TRIBAL COUNCIL (cont. from page 1)

Composed of Lodge officers, Chapter Chiefs, and Vice Chiefs and Lodge and Chapter Advisers, the Council plans for the Lodge and carries out its secretarial and financial duties.

For instance, at the Fall Pow-Wow, it was moved that copies of our Constitution be mailed to every active member. At the next T.C. meeting a committee was appointed to copy the documents and then mimeograph and mail the finished reproductions to all members. The finished copies await mailing. This shows T.C. efficiency at work!

"Brotherhood— in a day when there is too much hatred at home and abroad.

Cheerfulness— in a day when the pessimists have the floor.

Service— in a day when millions are interested in getting or grasping rather than giving."
