FALL POW WOW FEATURES RAIN

Ask anyone who was at the Pow Wow and they will tell you that a little rain never hurt anyone.

Rain which started late Saturday night and did not let up until late Sunday morning, caused the traditional business meeting to be canceled, except for the election of officers.

Luckily, the rain never presented a threat until after the final ceremonies Saturday evening.

This year's Pow Wow was by far the largest the lodge has ever held. There were more than twice the number of candidates this year than ever before assembled. But the number of arrowmen was quite low, about half the number of candidates.

Working with this overwhelming ratio, the past lodge officers, and especially Joe Estillon, vice chief, brought about one of the most successful Pow Wows ever.

With the help of a public address system, the Saturday evening closing ceremonies were more meaningful to the candidates, as they could hear the speakers.

The calling out of Vigil Honor members followed the final ceremonies. Those called out were: Mr. Ted Marshall, Post 500; Jerry Huggins, Post 500; Jerome Hill, Post 46; Mark Ramsour, Post 223; & Mr. Don Scheele, Post 243.
