Crummy Indians

As a Brotherhood member of the Golden Sun Lodge, Order of the Arrow, I wonder just what our members see in the traditionally solemn ceremonies conducted at the annual Fall Pow Wow.

I think it is apparent to those who attended the Pow Wow, that to many of our brothers, there is no spiritual value in these ceremonies.

There was entirely too much hazing at the Pow Wow. I agree that there is a place for hazing, but past that point - there is no room for it at all.

Many moons will pass before the next Pow Wow, so new and old alike can seek to preserve the solemnity of our fine and meaningful ceremonies.

Running Deer

Come to the Winter Event and meet some people you have never met before! See you there!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

SUNDIAL THOUGHTS

CHAPTER NEWS
IS LACKING

Well, what is the news in the Chapters? Fellows, you have been invited to see that your Chapter has a story in each issue of the Sundial. Yes, we have Chapter stories, but what is there to them. See what we mean?

If you don't understand what we mean, let us tell you.---

There is more to being a Chapter than electing officers, and more than accepting a few minor projects. There are well over a million and a half things to be done in this world, and we think you could take it upon yourselves to do some of these more needed projects.

Yes, it may take time, but then, why are you here - To give of your time to help others. Remember, CHEERFUL SERVICE.

Where the action is - there is news, and if there is no action in the Chapters, there is not much need for the Lodge, and no need for the Sun Dial.

Next issue of the Sun Dial, let's see some Chapter NEWS!
