

TRIBAL COUNCIL SUMARIES

The Tribal Council held a meeting before the Winter Event, December 7, 1968. At this meeting, $15.00 was donated to the Tribute Fund of Julius Suedmeier.

A Treasures report was given, the amount being $3,051.66 without the November mailings.

The building of a new drum, and a Tee Pee was approved and left to the three Lincoln Chapters.

At the meeting held on January 26, 1969, discussion of the National Conference fee, plans and deadline, and the Spring Event date, time, and place highlighted the agenda.

LODGE DANCE TEAM

For sometime, the Lodge has been trying to form a dance team, but no success has ever been met.

Arrangements are being made to hold a Dance Seminar, put on by the Wacisa Indian Dancers at the Spring Event.

If you are at all interested, come to the Spring Event, and learn the basic steps.

SUNRISE CHAPTER NEWS

Soap for our fighting men in Vietnam was gathered by Sunrise Chapter members in November and in December. Two big boxes were filled on December 5th by Chapter members.

The next project is to recruit boys into the Scout troops of their communities.

CEREMONIAL CIRCLE

Because of cold and snow, the completion of the Ceremonial Circle was postponed until after the Spring thaw.

WINNEBAGO RINGS BELLS

December 10th found many Winnebago Chapter members out on the streets, but for a good reason. Members rang bells for the Salvation Army, and succeeded in raising almost $85.00.

A check for $25.00 was received for participating in the Radio Jamboree and now Winnebago people are trying to find some worthy cause for the money.

One suggestion is to donate the money for the use of purchasing a new canoe for summer camp use.

ALLOHAWK NEWS

Allohawk Chapter kept busy in January by filling a Friendship Box for Vietnam, done through the Red Cross.

Election teams have been formed and are now waiting to begin holding elections.

LONESOME PINE RINGS

The ringing of bells filled the cold air of Lincoln on the 18th of December, as Lonesome Pine Chapter members collected nearly $75.00 for the Salvation Army Bell Ringing Campaign.

Something encouraging to Chapter officers is the fact that more and more people are coming to their Chapter meetings.

OREGON TRAILS RELEASE

At a meeting held January 14, members from Oregon Trails Chapter, discussed election teams and work projects.

Mr. Suedmeier spoke to them about the various ways OA can serve the council.
