

ORDEAL MEMBERS, PLEASE
READ THIS NOTICE, NOW!

(Editor's note; This appeared in the last issue of the Sundial. It is apparent that most of the Ordeal members did not read it, as very few essays have been received as of the time of printing.)

The Brotherhood test will be given at the Pow Wow this year as in the past.

Something new to the Brotherhood is the essay of 100 to 200 words re-dedicating yourself to the principle of Cheerful Service.

Deadline

Chief John Wissler said, "I want them sent into the Scout Service Center by August 1." He said, "This gives them plenty of time."

Don said, "For those Ordeal members who would like to begin on their Brotherhood, they should start to memorize the Obligation, Song, and some of the history."

"All this information can be found in the Order of the Arrow Handbook," Don Van Horn commented.

"I would like to remind all Ordeal members, that their essay is to be in the Scout Service Center by August 1," Don concluded.

TRIBAL COUNCIL MAKES LODGE NOMINATIONS

The nominations:
Chief John Wissler
Vice Chief Don Van Horn
Recording Secretary
Chuck Slagle
Corresponding Secretary
Randy Wilcox
Treasurer Jim Commers

The nominations will in no way prevent other candidates from being nominated from the floor at the Pow Wow business meeting.

QUESTIONNAIRE SENT

In the last issue of the Sundial, it was said that the Ordeal questionnaire would not be sent until this issue/

However, they were received before the Sundial was mailed out, and they were included in that issue.

The last issue came out the latter part of May.

If you are an Ordeal member you should have received one in the May issue.

The questionnaire has questions and answers concerning several parts of the Order of the Arrow.

You should study the questionnaire completely, for you will be quized over it at the Pow Wow.

OLD TRADITIONS, NEW IDEAS IN TAP OUT

The Golden Sun Lodge Thursday night Tap Out incorporates both new and old ideas to make a fine ceremony.

The ceremony, written by Chief John Wissler, tells of the legend of the Order of The Arrow, just before the campers enter the tap out circle.

Tapped campers are led to the Tee Pee, which overlooks the tap out circle.

The Lodge drum is placed next to the Tee Pee.

This year, the candidates do not seleep out under the stars, as in the past.

This is done this way to prevent repetition, as they sleepout at the Pow Wow.

If you haven't seen the Tap Out yet this year, then you should try to make plans to see it.
