

New Leaders Trained at LLD

...By Mitchell Lowery, Lodge Vice Chief

Thank you to everyone who attended the Lodge Leadership Development this year. This years LLD had a lot of interesting training courses and exciting C.O.P.E. games. Thank you to everyone who led one of the training sessions and to Phil Wilhelm for arranging the games. I hope that everyone who attended the LLD got a lot out of it, and will use the training in the future.

Don't forget that anyone is able to attend the Lodge Leadership Development, you don't have to be an officer or a chairman. Please plan on attending next year's event.

If you have any questions or suggestions about the Lodge Leadership Development please e-mail me at vicechief@goldensunlodge.org.

Lodge and Chapter Officers at LLD

Wow What a Pow-Wow!!

...By Mitchell Lowery, Lodge Vice Chief

This years Pow Wow went great! Thank you to all of the Elangomats and Nimats for the weekend, you did a great job. Also, thank you to everyone who participated in ceremonies, it really helped out over the weekend to have all the ceremonies run so smoothly. There are many more people that need to be thanked for the weekend, and you all know who you are, these weekends could not happen without your help.

As for the actual event itself, we had an amazing number of ordeal candidates go through the Ordeal ceremony. We also had a lot of Ordeal members seal their membership in our order by taking their Brotherhood. This year's big event at the Pow Wow was the Redneck Games. Not too many teams participated this year, but there was still a lot of fun to be had. Make sure that you start talking to your Chapter Chief and start training for next years events.

A major part of this weekend was the election of the new Lodge and Chapter officers. The new officers are: Lodge Chief—Seth Bingham, Lodge VC—Mitch Lowery, Lodge Secretary—Dustin Giddings, Lodge Treasurer—Alex Daake, Salt Valley Chief—Stephen Lowery, Seven Feathers Chief—Josh Hosenpillar and the Prarie Winds Chief is Miles Powers.

I hope that everyone had a good time at the Pow Wow.

Seven Feathers Chapter

By Josh Hotsenpillar, Chapter Chief

Hi my name is Josh Hotsenpillar, and I am the new Seven Feathers Chapter Chief. I would like to thank all the people that voted for me. Let me tell you a little bit about me I play baseball and really enjoy wrestling.

Lately our chapter meetings have really been taking off the last chapter meeting we had about 13 people, and about 7 people were new. We have planned a ceremonies team for the Fall Fellowship, and started to talk about MBU. I would also like to encourage all Seven Feathers arrowmen, to come to our chapter meetings. See you there.
