Plan Now To Attend Winter Event

...by Mitchell Lowery, Lodge Vice Chief,

Anyone who hasn't been paying attention much lately knows nothing about the great event coming up. For those of you that know something, here is more detail for you. Salt Valley Chapter is hosting this years Regalia Extravaganza Winter event and it is going to be something you don't want to miss.

$10 fee but will have to provide your own lunch. We also advise you bring some extra money because vendors will be on hand items for sale, as well as some training sessions may cost a little money. The event will start about 9 am and we will have training on understanding the ceremony for an hour right about then. After this time, you will have many options for the

The event will be held on Saturday, February 19th at Campbell Elementary (22nd & Superior) in Lincoln. The event will be running for most of the day with check-in beginning at 8:30, activities beginning at 9:00 and the lodge business meeting at 4:00. The fee is just $10 including food if you register by February 11th. If you do not register by that date you can still attend the event for the day. We will be having a choker making training as well as a bead work training for those who are interested. Some people will be there working on their own regalia and others will actually be working on war bonnets for ceremonies use.

Lunch will be provided at about noon for those who registered in advance

Many Moccasins To Perform At Winter Event

...by Dianne Wolterman, Winter Event Adviser

Hi Everyone!

I hope that you have all had a wonderful Holiday season and are now ready to get back to the business of Scouting.

The young men have a WONDERFUL event planned for you at the OA Regalia Extravaganza and the main feature will be Many Moccasins. This is a Native American Dance Troupe is a group of Native dancers, who represent different tribes. They are coming to do a presentation of traditional dances and songs of the various tribes with the members giving an educational explanation of each dance and/or song. This group has traveled throughout the Midwest performing and competing. The members range from beginners to Pow-Wow circuit veterans.

We want to encourage everyone to attend this very special presentation to learn more about the dances and songs, but also to meet and learn about the people. There will be time for questions and answers, as well as a chance for all of us to participate in the dance.

Please secure your spot by registering for the event by the deadline.

SEE YOU ALL THERE AND READY TO DANCE!!!!
