It's Unit Elections Time

...by Karl Hammond, Lodge Unit Elections Chairman

How many of you remember the Scout meeting when you were voted into the OA? I can remember seeing my name being written on a large chalkboard by a guy wearing a red and white sash. I understood a little of what the Order of the Arrow was about but I had no idea that I would become so involved in a brotherhood of cheerful service.

Unit Elections are a critical part of the OA. It's how we get new members into the lodge and it's where new scouts first see OA members. YOU can be a part of this process. Chapters always need Arrowmen to help with unit elections. Additionally, this is a great way to serve your chapter. Contact your chapter vice chief in charge of elections to volunteer:

- Salt Valley - Robert Sugrue
- Seven Feathers - Tommy Oseigner
- Prairie Winds - Dan Winter

Unit elections this year will start and end one month earlier than last year. They begin February 1 and end April 30, so get in touch with you chapter vice chiefs and attend your chapter meetings soon. Your chapter vice chiefs will be happy train you and answer any of your questions.

Infinity ... extends not only outwards ... but inwards to the heart of each human being.
