Plan Now To Attend Spring Event

...by Mitchell Lowery, Lodge Vice Chief,

This year the Order of the Arrow Spring Event will be held May 20 through May 22, 2005 at Camp Cornhusker. This event will be the chance for the OA to show its support for the Cornhusker Council as we help to open the camp for the 2005 camping season. This will also be the chance for all of our Ordeal members to seal their membership in the OA by taking their Brotherhood. The Spring Event is also the last chance for any candidates for the OA who were called out at summer camp 2004 to take their Ordeal. Please remind any members of your troop that have not taken their Ordeal yet that this will be their last chance and that they will have to wait until next year when they will be eligible for election again. If you have not yet registered yet do so as soon as possible you can register at the council office or over the web at the lodge website. The cost for general membership is $15 and if you are planning on sealing your membership by taking your brotherhood the cost will be $29.

Farewell to Winter Recap

...by Stephen Lowery, Event Advisor

First of all I would like to thank everyone who helped with the Farewell to Winter especially Dave Miller, Dianne Wolterman, Stephen Lowery, and Mitchell Cookston. For those of you who missed the event you missed a great time. Fun and regalia were just some of the things that you missed as well as vendors and the Many Moccasins Dance Troupe. Drew Dougherty, the section Chief for Section C-5A, was also in attendance.

Next I would like to take this chance to thank everyone who has been helping with unit elections for the past few months. The service that you are doing for our lodge is greatly appreciated. For all of the scouts that are being elected into the Order of the Arrow, and many of the other scouts in the troop you are there first impression of what our order is like. So again, I thank all of you for helping with these elections.

Third I would like to invite all of you down to Camp Cornhusker on Fridays for the Order of the Arrow call out ceremonies. This is another chance for us to promote the Order of the Arrow to the parents who are at Camp for family day, as well as another chance to promote the order to the troops. The more help that we have from members the smoother things will run and the more impressive we can make these ceremonies. I look forward to seeing as many of you as can make it at Camp Cornhusker this year.
