Training and fun at the Fall Fellowship!!

...by Seth Bingham, Lodge Chief

The Golden Sun Lodge #492 had had our annual Fall Fellowship on October 22nd, 2005 at Doane College in Crete, Nebraska. A thank you goes out to the entire LEC for planning, coordinating, and carrying out this year's event.

After a wonderful dinner, we were inspired to continue forward in the principals of the Order through a rededication ceremony presented by the Salt Valley District. We also recognized and congratulated the 2005 Vigil Honor recipients. The 2004-2005 Lodge Leadership were recognized for their service. With a look to the future, we presented the 2005-2006 Lodge goals to the membership and encouraged each member to strive to accomplish them.

Seth Bingham, our Lodge Chief, and Russ Votava, our new Lodge Adviser, were honored with the Founders Award. We also had a chance to say our formal goodbyes to Ed Sexton. Ed has been our lodge adviser for the past two years and to honor his service, the Golden Sun Lodge presented a James E. West fellowship award in his name. The money from the award, donated by the Lodge, goes directly to the Cornhusker Council endowment to ensure quality scouting for years to come, what an appropriate gift for a man who has dedicated the past two years to our Lodge, the Order and Scouting. Ed, we will miss you.
